INDEX

TO THE SEVENTEENTH VOLUME.

A

Astrachan, Description of, (Fragment of the Inedited Journal of a Traveller,) 234.

Ancient Peruvians, Monuments, Usages, and Characteristic Sketches of the, 431.

B

Bengal, General Letter of News from, 548.

C

Civilisation, On the, of the Interior of Africa, and the Education of Negroes, 26.

Censorship of the Press in India, Origin, History, and Present State of the, 45. 237. 453.

Constantinople, The Libraries of, 85.

Cyrenaica, Pacho's Travels in, and Marmarica, 119.

Civil and Military Intelligence, 187.

China, Recent French Work on, 255.

Chandernagore, The Baboon of, 324.

Courts of Justice, Hints for the Improvement of the, at the Cape of Good Hope, 329. Mode of Proceeding in Civil Suits, 332. Mode of Proceeding in Criminal Suits, 333. Slave Code, 334. General Rules, ib.

Committee of the Liverpool East India Association, Report of the, on the Subject of the Trade with India, 337.

China, Political and Commercial Relations of Great Britain with, 436.

Colombian Freebooter, The, 447.

Chinese Philosophy, History of, 509.

Club, Junior United Service, 563.

D

Debate at the East India House, 179. Grant to Captain Buchanan, 194. On the Suspension of a Judge in India, 180. On the Carnatic Debt, 181. On the Calcutta Stamp Act, 183. Captain Prescott, on the Abuse of Patronage, 187. The Treasury Department, ib. Grant of 200*l.* per annum, to Major Cunningham, 567. On the East India Docks Bill, 569. On the Abuse of Patronage, 570.

Dyeing Drug, Account of the, called Kasumba, a Production of Siam, 265.

E

Egyptians, Ancient, and Ethiopians, 257.

East, Letters from the—Recent Account of the State of Singapore, 358.

Expedition from India to Egypt, Journal of the, Chap. VI., 88. Description of Point du Galle, 88. Insalubrity of the Air, ib. Peculiarity in the Canoes of this part of the Island, 89. Productions of the Coast, and of Ceylon generally, 91. Chap. VII., 93. Description of the Pearl Fishery, 93. Appearance of the Coast during the season of the Fishery, 94. The Expedition receives reinforcements from Bombay, 97. Order for its departure to the Coast of Malabar, 97. Chap. VIII., 98. The Fleet passes the Coast of Malabar, 98. Orders received from the Interior of Cochin, ib. Arrival at Bombay, 99. Chap. IX., 99. The Expedition at length ascertains its destination, 99. Preparations for its departure, 100. Arrival at Bombay, ib. The Fleet sails for the Red Sea, 101. Chap. X., 101. Our division doubles Cape Guardafui, and enters the Arabian Gulf, 101. Arrival at Mocha, 102. Chap. XI., 103. Navigation of the Red Sea, 103. Arrival at Jeddah, 104. Union of the Anglo-Indian Expedition with that which came from the Cape of Good Hope, 105. First Accounts of the Arrival in Egypt of those troops which had been sent out from England, ib. Chap. XII., 291. Departure from Jeddah, 291. Arrival at Kosseir, ib. Description of that Town, ib. Wandering Arabs, 292. Preparations made by the Army for crossing the Desert, 293. Chap. XIII., 293. The Army commences its March across the Desert, 293. Particulars relative to the March, ib. Cisters sixteen miles from Kosseir, 295. Wells at Moïlah, ib. Sources three leagues from Moïlah, 296. Wells of La Gytah, 297. Arrival at Bin Aubar, and at Keneh, on the Nile, ib. Description of Keneh, 298. Chap. XIV., 301. The Army leaves Keneh, a portion of it embarks on the Nile, the remainder continues its march to Girgeh, 301. View of Farshout, and its Environs, 302. Arrival at Girgeh, 305. Description of that Town, ib. The Detachment embarks for Cairo, 306. Arrival at the Island of Roudah, near Cairo, ib. Chap. XV., 471. Cairo and its Environs, 471. Chap. XVI., 478. The Army receives an Order to proceed to Alexandria; a Detachment remains at Gyzeh, 478. A detail of some of the incidents which occurred in the Garrison up to the 7th of October, 479. Pyramids of Gyzeh, 480. Heliopolis, ib. Chap. XVII., 481. Description of the Mamelukes and Beys, and their influence in Egypt, 481. Their conduct at the time of the Conquest of this Country by the French Army, 482. The Turks attempt to get rid of them by Treason, 483. Massacre of the Mamelukes at Aboukir, 484. Conduct of the English on this occasion, ib. Account of this Revolution, 485.

F

Fund, Oriental Translation, 565.

H

Hayti, The present State of, with Remarks on its Agriculture, Commerce, Laws, Religion, Finances, and Population—By James Franklin, 316.

I

India, Proceedings in, to Petition Parliament for Opening that Country to Colonisation, 3. The Resolutions, 8. The Petition, 9. Mr. Rickards's New Work on, 30. 193. Preface, 195. Introduction, 196. Castes of the Natives of India, 197. Proofs of Progressive Improvement, 200. Conduct of the Rulers of India, 202. Alleged Simplicity of the Food and Habits of the People of India, 203. Fallacy of these Statements, 205. Real State of the Hindoos, 206. Expenses of Living in India, 208. Authorities against Free Trade, 212. Postscript, containing Confirmations from Bishop Heber's Journal, 215. Free Trade and Colonisation in India, 399. Trade with India and China, 400. Export of Cotton Goods, 401. Cotton Twist and Yarn, ib. Broad Cloths and Serges, 402. Iron, Steel, and Copper, ib. Spelter, or Zinc, ib. Imports from India, 403. Tea from China, ib. Raw and Waste Silk, ib. Indigo from Bengal, 404. Lac Dye, 405. Safflower, ib. Pearl Sago, ib. Ore of Antimony, 406. Cotton Wool, ib. East India Sugar, 408. Capital Required, 410. Monopoly of Salt, ib. Free Settlement of Englishmen, 414. Soil and Climate of India, ib. Arguments stated and answered, 415. Mohammedan Rulers over the Hindoos, ib. Tartar Dominion of China, 416. Roman Dominion over Britain, 417. Effects of Free Settlement, 418. Indigo Planters, ib. Danger of English Settlers, 419. Tranquillity of Settled Provinces, 419. Alleged Danger of Profligate Adventurers, 420. Colonisation by Chinese, 421. Bad Government of the English, ib. European Settlers in the Phillipines, 422. Settlers in Java, ib. Settlers in Ceylon, 423. Education of the Hindoos, ib. Bad Administration of the Provinces, 427. East and West Indian Commerce, 428.

Intelligence, Shipping, 191. 397. 580.

Italy, Travels in, by an East Indian, home on leave, No. II., 61. Milan, 61. Piazza del Duomo, 62. The Scala, 63. Political Condition, 65. The Marionettes, ib. Commerce, 66.

J

Journal, Bishop Heber's, 137. Unhealthiness of the District of Terrai, 137. A Tiger Hunt, 138. Opium Gathering, 141. Hoolee Festival, ib. Indian Women, ib.

Journey from Madras to Bombay, 225. Embarkation at Calicut, 225. Tellicherry, 226. Goa, 228. Entry to the Harbour of Bombay, 229.

Judges, the King's, and Supreme Court of Calcutta, 521.

Juries, Indian, and Costs of Legal Proceedings, 535.

L

Latest Intelligence, General Summary of the, connected with the Eastern World, 154. General Orders by the Right Honourable the Governor-General in Council, 155. Discovery of Coal in Australia, 158. Asiatic Society of Bengal, 159. Madras, 162. Bombay, 173. Re-casting of the Indian Diocese, 177.

L'Inde Française, or a Collection of Lithographic Drawings, representing the Divinities, Temples, Pagodas, Costumes, Physiognomy, Furniture, Arms, and Utensils of the Hindoo People, who inhabit the French possessions in India, and in particular the Coasts of Coromandel and of Malabar, 326.

M

Malte-Brun, Biographical Notice of, the celebrated Geographer, 33.

Manners and Opinions, Turkish—By M. Paleologus, 107.

Medical Service of India, On the, 148.

Marine Board, On the Bombay, 148.

Mis-statements, Correction of, on Indian Affairs, in 'The Quarterly Review,' 219.

Madras, General Letter of News from, 366. 553.

Maxfield, Captain William, Letter addressed to, 361.

O

Outrage recently committed on an Englishman in Java, 335.

Officers, King's and Company's, in the United Service Clubs, 363.

Opinion, Public, 381.

Oration, An, Delivered before the Medico-Botanical Society of London, Oct. 12, 1827, 500.

P

Poetry.—Sonnet, 25. The Slave Ship, 43. The Minstrel Maid to the Warrior, 60. The Oak of the Village Green, 70. A Despot's Midnight, 77. Sonnet, 84. Regret, 87. Ruins, 106. Sonnet to the Memory of John Keats, 109. The Broken Heart, 117. The Scottish Covenanter, 136. To some Transplanted Flowers, 147. Sonnet, 153. The Negro Boy, 230. On a Returned Portrait, 235. To Freedom, 254. The Gamester, 256. Address to the Shade of Milton, 263. Stanzas for Music, 272. The Voice of Nature, 283. My Home, 289. The Land of Love, 307. Sonnet, 315. War Song for Greece, 323. The Dying Soldier, 328. The Coronal, 357. The Death-Place of Charles XII., 365. Greece, 430. To the Muse of Shakspeare, 435. Song of the Young Greek, 446.

The Arab's Lament for his Steed, 451. Eurus, or the Wrestling of the Winds, 464. The Sunbeam, 499. Italy, a War Song, 513. Hope, 530.

Punishment of Death, An Inquiry into the Right or Justice of, 71.

Proceedings, Arbitrary, at Bombay, and Specimens of Indian Legislation, 110.

Parsees, Curious Correspondence of, at Bombay, 540.

R

Reforms in India, Suggested by Sir Edward East, No. V., 79. Village Arbitrators, or other Civil Sub-Commissioners in each Village, 79. Complaint before Barrister-Judge and Magistrate, ib. Examination, ib. Fees of Court, ib. Revenue, 80. Clerk, ib. Petitions to be entered in a book, ib. Rejected Petitions, &c., ib. Summons Fee, 81. Process to compel Appearance, ib. Proceeding on Appearance, 82. Question of Reference to Arbitration, ib. Failure of Reference, ib. Issue of Law, 83. Reference to Village Court, ib. Jurisdiction of Superior Court, 84.

Refuge, The, A Sketch from Real Life, 231.

Respect, Tributes of, to Mr. Elphinstone, at Bombay, 371. Address of the British Inhabitants of Bombay, 372. Mr. Elphinstone's Reply to the Address of the British Inhabitants, 374. Address of the Native Princes, Chiefs, &c., 376. Mr. Elphinstone's Reply to the Address of the Native Princes, Chiefs, &c., 378.

S

Summary Commitment, Doctrine of, for Constructive Contempts of Parliament, and of Courts of Justice, 127. 273.

Stamp Tax, Grounds of Objection to the Calcutta, 353.

Society, Paris Geographical, 515. Voyage to Timbuctoo, and the Interior of Africa, 516. Geography of Russia, 517. American Antiquities, 518. Oceania, 519.

T

Tin, Memoir of the, of the Island of Banka, 285.

Turkish Press, State of the, at Constantinople, 309.

V

Vision, A, of Leadenhall-street, 531.

W

War, Present Seat of, in Chinese Tartary, 67.

Water Column, Expedition of the, from Rangoon, with an Account of the Attack made by it on Denabew, 219.

PRINTED BY W. LEWER, 147, STRAND.

MAR -0 1943